

General information for competitors participating at horse events

Owners, competitors and persons in charge of horses need to regularly monitor and be aware of the health status of their horse to ensure that they do not bring a sick horse to an event. In addition to the elements listed below, competitors should be prepared to abide by the direction of the Event EI Horse Health Panel. A Horse event participation Declaration form must be completed or you will be unable to enter the event (NO FORM, NO ENTRY)

All competitors must check with their agistment/ properties owners', that they are able to remove and return their horses after an event.

Knowledge of Health of the Horse prior to the event

The owner, competitor or person in charge of bringing a horse to an event must be able to complete the declaration stating that the horse is well and has been so for at least the last 3 days. To assess this one needs to be aware and observe that:

- The horse has been eating normally.
- Is free of a nasal discharge.
- Does not have a cough.
- Has a normal temperature of less than 39°C.

In addition, general animal welfare requirements should also be observed in relation to lameness, open wounds and fitness for purpose.

Owner responsibilities at the event

- Provide truthful and accurate information as required.
- Carry out instructions as given by the Event EI Horse Health Panel.
- Do not share tack and equipment between horses.
- Ensure each horse has their own water and feed bucket.
- Do not use communal water troughs.
- Minimise contact between horses.
- Minimise contact between other people and your horse.
- Do not allow horses to eat any other horse's feed.
- Take home any leftover feed.

On return to the property

The person in charge of the horse(s) should:

- Clean and disinfect all horse equipment and the horse transport vehicle.
- Have a thorough shower, including hair, and change clothes.
- Continue to monitor the health of the horse(s).
